

WAGES WILL FIGHT WAGE REDUCTIONS

Not to Seek Six-Hour Day or Five-Day Week — Fight for Such Fight Not Yet Won, Official Declares

RESURGENTS LOSE

Vote Is Overwhelmingly Against View—But Today on Proposed to Split Contract for Four Years

(By the Associated Press)
Indianapolis, Jan. 31. — Forces of the United Mine Workers of America were pledged by their delegates to fight convention here today to fight against any wage reduction but elected at the same time to defer their demand for a shorter work day. The vote was overwhelming. Tomorrow the convention will vote on the proposal of the scale committee that they seek to obtain a wage contract for a term of four years.

Opposition to the proposal for a renewal of the contract was started by insurgents who demanded a six-hour day and five-day week, but they were defeated. The union, and the three international officers who pleaded for unanimity that "the majority of the union may be preserved."

Time Not Yet Ripe for Fight.
Secretary of President Frank Farrington of the Illinois district, chairman of the scale committee, Vice President Philip Murray and Secretary Green, beat down every argument of the insurgents. They represented that the union is not in condition to wage a fight for a shorter work day, that the public will not support such a demand and that the operators would welcome it.

"The operators want us to fight," declared Secretary Green, "but we're not going to when they want it. We'll choose our own time and fight when we know we can win. When I think that time has come, as come it will, I'll say fight and I'll stay in it till we win. We must have our house in order, our campaign and strategy planned, and our outfit ready. The ideal is fine, but the time is not now."

Delegates from West Virginia asked if the union would be with them in the fight against the reductions they thought were to come. Chairman Farrington answered that the union would be with them throughout; that conditions in West Virginia and all districts had been carefully considered in phrasing the report, and that it was for the best interests of all the miners that he adopted.

"Should We Demand No Work?"
"Should we demand a six-hour day, strike for it and ultimately obtain it?" Mr. Farrington declared, "it would be the worst thing that could happen to us at this time. The cost of coal production would run up so high operators would be unable to sell in competition with non-union coal. We would have secured a good agreement but we'd have no work. We're dealing with facts with a condition, and not an ideal."

Signed by all the district presidents, who composed the scale committee, Chairman Farrington's report recommended that accredited representatives of the organization be authorized and instructed to secure the best agreement obtainable from the operators in the central competitive field on the basis of no reduction in wages and that any agreement so secured be submitted to a referendum vote of the membership for ratification. This motion was adopted.

MANORSE EMPLOYEES; AERON WITHOUT TROLLEY SERVICE
Akron, O., Jan. 31. — Akron tonight stood on the verge of the worst strike situation in its history following a vote from the city to the Southern Ohio Traction and Light company to withdraw its city transportation service on the expiration of its 25-year franchise at midnight. All street car service ends at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, when city cars reach the barns after their last trip. The situation is fraught with danger of failure of traction and city officials are agreed to a rate for the new franchise. City officials wanted a concession of the 5-cent fare. Company officials demanded seven cents but finally agreed to a temporary franchise at six cents while a permanent grant was being negotiated. This the city rejected.

MAN THROWN OFF TRAIN DODGES OTHERS IN DARK

Leads Near Third Rail Near Grand Central Station—Ann
Broken

MISSSES DEATH MANY TIMES

Forced to Jump From Track to Avoid Crushing Locomotives

New York, Jan. 31. — The shudder many visitors to New York feel when their trains go burrowing into the dark subterranean lanes that filter into the Grand Central terminal became a horrifying reality for Martin V. Tracy, a millinery salesman of Mt. Vernon. He escaped death but suffered a general physical collapse and his nerves were badly shattered.

Tracy was passing from the smoking car to a coach last night when from some unaccountable cause, he was thrown to the ground. For awhile he was unconscious. When he awoke and realized a ponderous train was passing and almost touching him; that he was within inches of the electrically charged rails; that he couldn't rise, and that all was impenetrable black about him—he thought he was in a nightmare.

Dodges Train After Train.
Cautiously, lest he touch the third rail, Tracy gained his feet and found his arm had been broken. Staggering, half dazed along the tracks, he screamed until his voice and strength failed. Every few minutes blinding headlights warned him of approaching trains.

"Once," he said, describing his experience, "I jumped just in time to dodge one train and looked over my shoulder to see another approaching on the track to which I had jumped. I stood in between as thin as I could."

Between trains, Tracy used two packages of matches in a futile attempt to attract attention. When these had been exhausted, he said, he ran up the track, "howling like a scared baby."

At 1 o'clock this morning he was noticed staggering about in the tunnels, and firemen got him out with ladders.

SEEMS TO REPEAL
ANTI-KLAN BILL
Capital Excited Over Unexpected Move — Movie Censorship Included

Albany, Jan. 31. — Conversation of excitement unusual in capital halls during a late week session of the legislature prevailed here today as a result of introduction of bills seeking to repeal the Walker "anti-Ku Klux Klan" law which was passed last year, and the state motion picture censorship law.

There had previously been not the slightest intimation that any attempt would be made at the present session to oppose the Walker law, so that when John Boyle, Jr., one of the two Republican assemblymen from Suffolk county, dropped his repealer measure into the box today, it took everyone by surprise.

Assemblyman Boyle successfully evaded questioning as to his reason for introducing the bill and he left soon after the session for his home on Long Island.

The law which the bill seeks to repeal is an amendment to the civil rights act, under the terms of which secret fraternal organizations are now required to file with the secretary of state complete lists of their membership. Neither the Walker law, nor the Boyle repealer measure mentions the Klan by name, although at the time the law was passed last year it was understood it was aimed pointblank at the organization of the KKK.

DEMOCRATS ATTACKED FOR WAR ACTIONS

Lockwood Cites Figures Tending to Show Mismanagement of Wilson Administration in World Conflict

MENTIONS DOHERY

Says Sec. Lane and Others of Party Quit to Take Up Positions With Old Man at Fabulous Salaries

Washington, Jan. 31. — In reply to the recent statement of Democratic National Chairman Hull on the naval oil disclosures, George B. Lockwood, secretary of the Republican National committee, upheld the course of President Coolidge in a statement published today in the National Republican.

At the same time Mr. Lockwood attacked the record of the Wilson administration in its conduct of the war and reviewed at length the disclosures before congressional committees that investigated war expenditures.

"Chairman Hull," said the statement, "has issued a pronouncement in which he attempts to give the color of partisan politics to the disclosures in the Fall case. Secretary Fall is a Republican. It is true; he is a former member of the Harding administration."

Says Doherty Hired Many Officials.
"Mr. Doherty is one of the nation's most distinguished Democrats. He was a member of the platform committee of the last Democratic convention; he made a speech in the convention; his name was placed before the convention for the vice presidential nomination by the California delegation."

"Mr. Doherty was the largest contributor to the Democratic national campaign fund in 1916; he gave generously, it is said, to the Democratic campaign fund of 1920. It wasn't Mr. Doherty's instance that the late Secretary of Interior Lane, who had passed upon oil leases in which Mr. Doherty was interested under the Wilson administration, retired to accept employment with Mr. Doherty at a salary of $50,000 a year."

"Other disclosures, whether of the Wilson administration or the Harding administration, show that Mr. Doherty at this time was not a matter of partisan politics. The less said about partisan in this connection, perhaps, the better; it's not a matter of partisan politics but of personal and official wrongdoing for which no party can be held responsible unless it condones the crime and fails to prosecute the offenders."

Upon this point, the Republican national administration has made itself clear; it will go to the bottom of the matter and prosecute anyone found criminally liable.

Chairman Hull having invited attention, Mr. Lockwood said, to the "unblemished record of honesty and faithful service" under Democratic rule it would be in order to recite "just a few of the high spots of the last Wilson administration." Some of those listed were as follows:

"Bought 45,000,000 pairs of shoes for 3,500,000 soldiers."
"Bought 145,455,611 bread cases, or 42 for every man under arms."
"Spent $30,000,000 for coke; $35,000,000 for electric plants that produced no acid; $127,000,000 on terminals and docks at which no ships ever tied up; $115,000,000 on poison gas plants that furnished no gas; $4,000,000 on ships which took no part in winning the war."

Marines for Mexico Ambushes.
"Eleven billion dollars was loaned to foreign nations without evidence of insolvency, making collection impossible except by negotiation."
"Purchased 945,000 saddles, 1,000,000 sets of double harness, 2,000,000 horse covers, 2,500,000 blankets, 251,000 horses and mules used in the army; purchased 194,000 copper pipes for building bridges to brand the government; 21,000 horses and mules; bought 1,100,000 worth of ambulances for the army."

SLAYS FOUR; ARRESTED.
Knox, N. D., Jan. 31. — Theodore Larson, former beer editor, shot and killed four men and himself today. The slaying took place in a saloon in the city. Larson was arrested after the shooting.

RURAL SCHOOL BILL CONSIDERED

Former Cattle at Synagogue to Oppose Pending Legislation at Albany

Syracuse, Jan. 31. — The rural school bill was the target of denunciation and criticism at a session of farmers from many parts of the state here today. The result of the meeting was preliminary organization of the "Rural School Improvement Society," established to combat legislation on the bill at Albany and for "constructive development" of the rural school system.

Ninety-nine per cent of those present were emphatically opposed to the bill.

The session was a hectic riotous affair. Everybody had criticism to make and insisted on being heard.

Condemned Present System.
A resolution submitted by William Thompson, of Ulster county, furnished the following description of the sentiment of those present:

"We are confronted with a complete breakdown of our public school system, in that instead of giving us educated people, we have the cigar smoking, flapper, the jazz-loving, smoking youth to whom labor in any shape is nauseous."

"We are also confronted with a demand on the part of our professional educators for more power, for more money to enable them to bring all of these 'blessings' into the rural districts."

HELD FOR MURDER
IN BINGHAMTON
Giro Scotti Arrested in Long Island—Wanted for Slaying Policeman

New York, Jan. 31. — Giro Scotti, charged by the police of Binghamton with the murder there of Patrolman Moran, on November 30, 1932, was arrested by New York detectives and state policemen today in a shack in the woods near Pinelawn, L. I.

Scotti was alleged to have shot Moran when the latter tried to stop a fight over the sale of a Binghamton saloon. In the shack detectives said they found a .38-gallon whiskey still in operation, a loaded revolver, and a receipt for a stolen state motor car.

The police said Scotti was arrested in a launch containing 10 cases of whiskey. He forfeited $1,000 bail through failure to appear for a hearing in federal court here.

SAYS N. Y. C. EMPLOYEES MAY JOIN UNIONS FREELY

New York, Jan. 31. — The New York Central railroad never has and never will interfere with the union affiliations of its employees, F. E. Crowley, vice president in charge of operations, tonight declared before the Metropolitan chapter of the New York Central Veterans' association.

"The management," he said, "never has and never will dictate what labor organizations or fraternal bodies an employee of the road belongs to or is affiliated with. The railroad only expects loyalty from its men and the management aims to give fair treatment and the best possible working conditions to its employees."

TAX BILL TO BE REPORTED NEARLY INTACT

Republicans Agree to Unite in Support Essential Provisions in Face of Democratic Opposition

FEW BIG CHANGES

Majority Members Reject, 11 to 3, Proposal to Make Sur-Tax Maximum 32 Per Cent Instead of 25

Washington, Jan. 31. — The Mellon tax bill will be reported to the house without material change.

This was assured today when Republicans of the house ways and means committee approved the sur-tax and income tax schedules recommended by the treasury. Despite division on surtaxes, they have agreed to stand together in support of the bill's essential provisions in the face of Democratic opposition in committee.

The sur-tax rates, the bone of contention between Democrats and Republicans, and among the Republicans themselves came to a vote after majority members of the committee had discussed the whole situation with the Republican steering committee.

Defeat 32 Per Cent Maximum.
Meeting alone later, they rejected by a 11 to 3 vote a proposal to make the maximum sur-tax rate 32 per cent instead of 25 per cent on income in excess of $100,000 as suggested by Mr. Mellon.

By the same vote, the Mellon schedule was approved. Chairman Green, Iowa, and Representatives Timberlake, Colorado, and McLaughlin, Michigan, are understood to have cast the three negative votes. The eleven who voted in the affirmative are said to have been Representatives Hawley, Oregon; Treadway, Massachusetts; Young, North Dakota; Tilton, Connecticut; Buchanan, New Jersey; Hadley, Washington; Watson, Pennsylvania; Mills, New York; Kearns, Ohio; Chisholm, Illinois; Crowther, New York.

Frank Wisconsin, an insurgent out of sympathy with the treasury's sur-tax recommendations, was not present.

FEDERAL AGENTS EXAMINE RECORDS

Internal Revenue Men Study Anderson's Account Books to Learn Income

New York, Jan. 31. — Two representatives of the internal revenue department today examined account books of the Anti-Saloon league of New York showing the income of William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the league, who was convicted of third degree forgery. The books were inspected in the office of Assistant District Attorney Pecora, who was in charge of Anderson's prosecution.

Mr. Pecora said the internal revenue representatives would inspect the books again.

District Attorney Stanton declined today to state whether Anderson would be tried on any of the four indictments remaining against him. Two of these are for grand larceny and two for extortion. Mr. Stanton said he would have nothing to say until Anderson had been sentenced on February 8.

Authorities were led to the spot by the child's mother after several hours of questioning during which she twice led them to other places where she claimed the child was buried.

EMPIRE DAIRY ORDERED NOT TO SELL TO LEAGUE

Letter Announces Transferring City Plants to Borden Products Company

OLD CONTRACT INVOLVED

Agreement Has Three Years to Run—Oneonta Attorney as Counsel

New York, Jan. 31. — An injunction temporarily restraining the Empire States Dairy company from selling or otherwise disposing of its business for a period of five years after April 12, 1935, was signed today by Supreme Court Justice Hagarty. The injunction also restrained the Dairy-men's League Cooperative association, inc., which recently purchased the business, from taking over the company for a similar period.

The injunction was issued at the request of F. W. Flske company of New York, which claimed to have the sole agency for sale of the dairy company's condensed and evaporated milk, through contract alleged to have been entered into in April, 1932.

The two defendants were cited to show cause next Monday why the injunction should not be made permanent.

Says League Ignores Contract.

It was alleged that the Dairy-men's League association did not recognize agencies of the sort specified in the contract. Officials of the Flske company said loss of the business provided for by the contract would provide the company to the sale.

By terms of the sale to the association, the dairy company disposed of six plants in the metropolitan districts and 15 plants in other parts of New York state and in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Sale of the six city plants of the dairy company to Borden Farm Products company, inc., was announced tonight by officials of the Dairy-men's association. At the time of the announcement the Flske company had received no notice of the Flske company's injunction. They did not know what effect it would have on the sale, they said later.

Oneonta Attorney as Counsel.

(Attorney Alvin Seybolt of this city has been a director and the general counsel of the Dairy-men's League since 1927. He was also the attorney for the Flske company for many years and has been in New York this week representing the company in the proposed transfer. It is assumed that the responsibility to appear and represent the company in the injunction proceedings will devolve upon him. Mr. Seybolt is expected to be at home here for the week-end, but this new turn in the affairs of the company will doubtless necessitate his return to New York Sunday night.)

MAN CARRIED OFF SHIP BY HIGH SEA

Majestic Delayed by Storm—Two Women Injured—Another Passenger Dies

New York, Jan. 31.—Three and a half days later after having fought her way through the stormiest passage of her history, the steamship Majestic arrived today with the tragic tale of one passenger lost at sea, and another who died on the voyage, with an added toll of two women badly injured as a result of the ship's buffeting.

Francis Kluckey, an electrician of Vienna, Austria, board for the first time, was washed overboard by a towering wave that swept the ship January 23. Two of the women were smashed against the rail so violently that they suffered severe lacerations.

Ship's officials said they sighted a huge iceberg 300 miles off Labrador. It was drifting southward.

ADOPTS ACT TO ANNUL NAVAL OIL LEASES

Senate, by Unanimous Vote of 89 Senators Present, Passes the Walsh Bill — Denby Seeks Advice

RESIGNATION FIGHT

Insurgents May Join Democrats to Insure Adoption of Resolution Aimed at Forcing Denby to Quit

Washington, Jan. 31. — Adopting the Walsh oil lease annulment resolution by the unanimous vote of 89 senators present, the senate plunged today into what promises to be a historic and extremely bitter fight over the Robinson resolution requesting the President to call immediately for the resignation of Secretary Denby.

As the verbal battle got under way, it was conceded that a sufficient number of Republican insurgent votes might be joined with those of the Democrats to insure adoption of the resolution. Such a coalition repudiated all efforts of administration senators to modify the language of the Walsh measure, which, as finally adopted, declares the leases, signed by Mr. Denby, to have been made without authority and contrary to law.

Meantime, Mr. Denby continued to stand pat on his declaration that he would not resign.

Let Denby Decide on Resigning.
"No one has advised me to resign," he declared in response to suggestions that he had been urged to give up his cabinet post to avoid embarrassment to the administration. It came to light today that after the Robinson resolution was introduced, Mr. Denby called on Chairman Leonard of the senate oil committee, and Chairman Hale of the senate naval committee, and other administration leaders in the senate and that they had left it to him to decide whether he should resign.

Supporters of the Denby resignation resolution are giving close attention to the proceedings before the house naval committee, which was held today, and are expected to make an announcement after investigating the question and consulting with various experts.

President Busy With Football.

President Coolidge again devoted much of his time to the ball game today, giving attention both to the various phases of the evidence submitted by the senate committee, and the question of the qualification of the special counsel he has selected to prosecute the case.

The executive had an early morning meeting with Chairman Leonard and Senators Lodge, Massachusetts, and Curtis, Kansas, the Republican leaders, and later called in Democratic senators for the first time, talking over the whole subject with Senators Robinson, Arkansas, the administration leader, and Walsh, Montana, who was the dominant part in the whole thing.

Late in the day the President took a long walk with Assistant Secretary Roosevelt during which the oil matter was discussed in a general way. Mr. Roosevelt said the executive had asked him a number of questions about phases of the inquiry.

Senators' Doctors Visit P.M.

A new development in the situation today was the leaving of a subcommittee for the appearance tomorrow of E. L. Doherty before the senate committee. The subcommittee was sent out by Chairman Leonard after a session with the senate committee, and was accompanied by Mr. Doherty, who was accompanied by a number of assistants.

The medical commission appointed by the senate committee consisted of Mr. Fall during the day in the sick room at the home of J. W. Gray, personal counsel to Mr. Doherty, and is expected to report to the committee tomorrow as to whether the former secretary can appear for questioning.

Rev. W. E. Elwood, in his usual happy manner, informed those present that there was a "more for their entertainment. Then Frank Howe of Sidney presented a four reel picture entitled "Lest We Forget." OXFORD CLUB BANQUET

Men's Club of Onondaga Church Held in Notable Social Event Monday Evening.

On Monday evening of this week occurred one of the most enjoyable social events ever given in the Methodist Episcopal church, when the Men's Oxford club gave a banquet in honor of the ladies of the church.

At 7 o'clock the strains of "The Red, White and Blue" were being played by the orchestra, about thirty-five ladies were seated in the dining room which was beautifully decorated with the national colors.

The well arranged tables presented an exceptionally pretty sight with their lighted candles and favors representing "Liberty" with a delicious menu was served in a very efficient manner. Demonstrating the efficiency and accomplishments of the men of the Oxford club, and an orchestra, composed of Mrs. L. D. Imperio at the piano, accompanied by Mr. D. Imperio with violin, and Frank Barden with cornet, rendered very pleasing selections during the banquet.

At the conclusion of the banquet A. H. Clark, president of the Men's Oxford club, gave a short talk regarding the work of the club and its object—to do good to and to help others in an unselfish way and to cultivate a Christian-like spirit.

He also mentioned how delighted they were to have the distinguished honor of having the ladies of the church as their guests. His remarks were responded to by Mrs. George D. Munger, Sunday School superintendent.

Says—Now Stiff Joints Must Go!

New Discovery Liniment 'Em Up and Even the Creaking Creaks

Yes! It's true—the world progresses. All you have to do nowadays is liniment up that stiff, rusty joint to get it moving again. It's a miracle working substance from a tube.

Then rub it on the offending part for a few minutes. You'll see the oil seeping through the skin and disappearing as it soaks in.

The chances are that your misbehaving joint will soon be "cracking" while you are dressing about the high house you need to keep when you're a youngster.

And in the morning, you'll find you're happy that you'll want to jump into your morning clothes and walk briskly down the street, just to show the neighbors that you're not as old as they think you are.

Just know! They call this wonder-working liniment for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to loosen up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joint, or reduce the swelling, Joint-Kame succeeds.

It's a good reason for a good, clean, reliable preparation that is just a few months has proven to be a multitude of people that have been cured of their stiff joints.

But Joint-Kame has been tested by the best of the best. It's been used by the best of the best. It's been used by the best of the best. It's been used by the best of the best.

No one can do miracles

The science of manufacturing is fairly exact. In the eight great Walk-Over factories, every labor and money-saving device that science has produced is used to make good shoes at prices as low as possible.

A modern factory is more economical than an old one. A large factory can reduce expense as a small one cannot. An efficient factory can make shoes at a lower cost than one not efficient. The Walk-Over factories are modern, large, and efficient.

Walk-Over shoes cannot be made to sell at less than $7. When you buy shoes at less than that it is safe to say that something has been left out of those shoes which is put into Walk-Overs to make them fit, wear, and look stylish. Walk-Over prices are

$7 $8 to $10

O. H. VARSITY AND SECONDS

Oppose Strong Teams Here Tonight—Varsity Meets Friday in League Contest.

Two fast games of basketball are promised at the high school this evening when the varsity quintet meets the Sidney High school five in a league game and the O. H. S. second team opposes the Otego High school team.

In the game played at Sidney early in the season the Yellow and White basketballers had little difficulty with their opponents but Sidney has improved greatly since that time and should give the local lads a hard tussle this evening. Instead of breaking the spirit of the O. H. S. team, the defeat at Cobleskill last week on their jaws tighter and made them more eager than ever to go through the balance of the season undefeated. It will be a fighting team that will oppose Sidney this evening, a team that will be in the game every minute.

The second team has been going good and confidently expects to take the Otego lads into camp, although realizing that good basketball must be played if victory results.

DEATHS

Frank I. Bates.

Frank I. Bates, for the past five years a resident of Richfield Springs, died Thursday noon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. E. Butler, on Chestnut street, of arterio-sclerosis. Mr. Bates had been a sufferer for several months, and was visiting his daughter in the hope that a change of scene, and increased medical attention might be of benefit to him, when the end came.

Deceased was born in the town of Middlefield, May 12, 1852, the youngest of five children of Samuel Bates and Almira Rich. He was married in Westford, November 16, 1881, to Della Fawcett, who, together with a daughter and three grandchildren, survive him. A farmer by occupation, his major portion of his life was spent in Middlefield. In 1908 he moved to Springfield, residing there until about five years ago, when Richfield Springs became his home.

Funeral services will be held on Sunday, at 2 p. m., in the Springfield Center Baptist church, with Rev. F. E. Arthur, pastor of the Richfield Springs Methodist church, of which Mr. Bates was a member, officiating. Interment will be in Springfield Center cemetery.

TOMORROW'S CANDEMAS

Church Festival More Generally Remembered for Another Reason.

Residents of Oneonta, and not less some millions of others will bear in mind that tomorrow—February 2—is Candlemas day, and for one of two reasons at least they will be thinking seriously about it. One, and the older, is that it has from the year 421 been an ecclesiastical festival, that of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin. It is on that date that the candles used in the Roman Catholic churches are blessed and carried in procession, in allusion of the words spoken by Simon of the Infant Christ, "A light to lighten the Gentiles." From the ceremony of blessing the candles, it takes its name "Candlemas."

Another reason why the day will be remembered and why many will be scanning skies with special interest is that, according to an ancient tradition, it is on this day that the bear, or in sections where there are no specimens of ursus major, the ground hog, is reputed to awake from his winter slumber and come forth into the light of day. If he sees his own shadow, it is said that he turns straightway about and, returning to his den, comes not forth again until eight weeks—have passed the rigors of winter—have passed. But "if he sees not his shadow, he forthwith quits his den and goes abroad, seeing life."

Since the tradition is so old it is no wonder that, handed down as it has been from father to son, there will be many eyes which will be cast hopefully upward in quest of dull skies. Still it is matter of record in weather bureaus that there is nothing in it, extreme cold being as likely to follow one condition as the other. Another tradition, put in rhyme, is: "Candlemas day, half your wood and half your hay"; and this is more reasonable. It implies that winter is just about half over, and this is pretty generally the case when January slips along to February.

Makes a Hit in Worcester.

The following reference to Miss Tessie Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sherman, is from the Worcester, Mass., Telegram, following her appearance in that city:

Disruptive Tessie Sherman, appearing with Tom Brown's Tip Tops, is one of the individual bright spots of the afternoon. Miss Sherman has charm and personality and uses both assets to good advantage in putting over her songs with pep and fervor that is delightful. The Tip Tops, five young men of more than average ability with the cornet and saxophone, make an effective background for her.

Social Club Entertained.

The Social club of Chapin Memorial church was entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hamm, 22 Center street. The early part of the evening was devoted to a business meeting, with a number of entertaining reports, concerning the work of the club, as a result of which it was decided to double, during the coming year, the club's previous contribution to the annual support of the church. Later games, cards and a general good time were enjoyed by all.

DES WHILE HUNTING

James M. Collins, aged 70 years, succumbed to heart disease while Gunning With Party of Friends of Middleburg.

Middleburg, Jan. 31. — James M. Collins, 70, was found dead yesterday afternoon on the Peter J. Mattie farm, Dr. Josiah Mann, Lewis H. McAllister and Mr. Collins composed a party who were hunting. One of them called to Mr. Collins and his failure to answer prompted an investigation which disclosed his dead body. He had been afflicted with heart trouble, and it is believed that one of these attacks brought about his death. Coroner Dr. Willard T. ...

Mr. Collins was step-father of the late Dr. Claude D. Mulbury of Windham, who died suddenly a few months ago from a heart attack which was said to have been caused by over-exertion and hard work in an effort to apprehend the murderer of the Hohenberg boy at Windham, he being the coroner of Greene county at the time. Mr. Collins was a son of the Rev. Jacob Collins.

Living Fairy Tale

THE CHRISTMAS TREE "Let us sing, let us sing, For merriment the day. When all creatures give cheer, The great day of the year! Let us keep up our humming, Yea, Christmas is coming, And all the world's glad, And so we sing and sing."

So sang the Balsam Fir tree, and all the other trees in the great woods strayed and sang and hummed and laughed in their low, wonderful way.

"You see," said the Balsam Fir tree, "I am especially happy. To be sure all trees are happy. They can have such a good time. They can look up at the good old smiling Mr. Sun and he will look down on them and beam with delight."

"Ah, life is beautiful," the Balsam Fir tree continued. "I am so happy here in the great woods and not only do I enjoy myself but I have these lovely thoughts."

"Truly, as a family, we are honored. It may be that this year I'll be chosen and that I will go to be a dressed-up Christmas tree."

NEWSPAPER MAIL DELIVERY

ORDERED IMPROVED AND FACILITATED BY POSTMASTER GENERAL NEW.

Prompt Delivery Along with First Class Mail Directed Following Careful Investigation of Needs Extending Over Several Months—Aim to Get Papers to Readers with Least Possible Delay.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30. — As a result of several months of investigation and study by experts of the post office department, Postmaster General New today issued a definite, concise and complete program for mailing, transmission and delivery of newspapers.

The order gives the same expedition to newspapers as is accorded first-class mail.

The order is result of painstaking effect on the part of post office inspectors, under direction of First Assistant Postmaster-General Gartlett. Minute instructions have been issued to all employees engaged in handling mail, so that there will be no possibility of misunderstanding importance of getting newspapers to the reader with a minimum of delay.

The essence of the order is that newspapers shall not be mixed with parcels post at any point in the dispatch from publishers' offices until delivery to addressees. Papers shall be handled separately and kept in constant transit, not being must to railway terminals to be reworked. In other words, papers are to be handled in the same manner as first-class mail.

Eliminates Mixed Mail. An important feature of the order is that no publication shall be given any less efficient or less expeditious treatment than at present. That means that publications other than newspapers will not suffer one iota from this progressive innovation by the post office department.

Another striking feature of the order is elimination of sacks of mail which are known to the business world as "mixed mail." Sacks of mixed mail some times contain letters, papers and parcel post matter and often times the entire contents were treated as parcel post mail. This order will prevent recurrence of that condition.

Another important feature of the order is that postmasters are required to notify publishers in each instance when they do not hit the dispatch which they advertise to hit, also to notify publishers when they are putting up mail in an incorrect manner.

Order Is Far Reaching. Under the new system, newspapers will be made up in separate sacks plainly labeled with the word "newspapers."

If there are only a few copies of newspapers at the point of dispatch, they will be placed in pouches with first class mail or in separate sacks, even the sacks are only partially filled.

This order is one of the most important and far reaching steps in post office history. It is for the benefit of those who desire to have newspapers placed before them at as early a moment as possible. This should keep both the city and rural population in closer and quicker touch with the several fields of activity.

11,000 WOMEN MISSING IN 1923

Travelers Aid Societies Declare Over 900 Girls Have Not Been Found.

New York.—More than 11,000 girls and women were reported missing during 1923 by police headquarters in 39 American cities, and approximately 900 of them had not been located by December 31.

These figures were gathered by the National Association of Travelers Aid Societies of this city in an effort to estimate the number and types of persons who drop out of sight each year. Reports from 37 cities, the association said, gave a total of 11,000 men, women and children who disappeared, about 2,400 of whom were not found.

Seeking for people who disappear is a part of Travelers Aid service which protects inexperienced travelers from harm by giving advice and help at railroad stations and steamship piers, according to John E. Shillady, general director of the National association.

Works in 100 Cities. "Travelers Aid workers in 100 cities helped more than 2,000,000 persons last year," he said, "saving thousands of girls from being lured off by designing individuals in crowded stations. The service helped all travelers from mere information seekers to those in dire emergency."

Police reports show that in New York city, 2,446 girls and women were reported missing in 1922, 1,632 of whom were girls under twenty-one years. Chicago recorded 1,540; Los Angeles, 1,020; Philadelphia, 1,006; St. Louis had 798; San Francisco, 471; and Detroit, 311. About 82 per cent of the missing were finally located—dead or alive—but the records show that many had undergone experiences worse than death.

Large as these figures are, they represent only about one-half of the actual number of those who actually dropped out of sight at some time during the year, in the opinion of Capt. John H. Ayers, chief of the bureau of missing persons, New York city.

Fall to Report Disappearances. "People often fail to report disappearing members of their family to us because they mistakenly fear we will bring publicity upon them, when that is the last thing we want to do," said Captain Ayers in a statement to the National association.

"Many also drop out of sight who have no one sufficiently interested to make a report. In our best judgment, we feel it fair to double actual figures, making a total of 4,902 women and girls in New York city, of whom 3,804 were under twenty-one years of age. If the same ratio of disappearance holds good for the United States as applies to New York city, then we can arrive by an arithmetical computation at the total for the United States of about 11,000 missing girls who probably disappear annually."

"Of course, it must be understood that those are not permanent disappearances, as a very large per cent are accounted for. Our record for last year was 88 per cent found."

Swindler of Aliens at Ellis Island Is Jailed

New York.—One of the petty swindlers who prey upon incoming aliens as they land from Ellis Island was temporarily eliminated recently when Theodore Laviole of 408 Eighth avenue pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 60 days in the workhouse. He was accused of using his familiarity with five languages to lead immigrants into the hands of taxicab drivers who would charge them exorbitant fees.

Laviole had been convicted previously 14 times, according to detectives. He was sent to Sing Sing for three years in 1912 for running down and killing a woman as he drove his car while intoxicated. In 1915 he was sent up for four years for assaulting an immigrant.

Immigrant Commissioner Henry H. Curran is leading a vigorous fight to protect incoming aliens against such schemes as that admitted by Laviole.

Large Buck Deer Attacks Women Mushroom Pickers

Medford, Ore.—A large buck deer kept in a fenced enclosure at the Hollywood orchard on the outskirts of the city attacked Mrs. Bert Johnston and another woman, who were picking mushrooms, and both narrowly escaped serious injury.

The deer knocked Mrs. Johnston down and was trampling her under foot, when her companion grabbed the deer by the horns, giving Mrs. Johnston a chance to leap to her feet. Her companion also was knocked down by the deer. Mrs. Johnston took off her cloak and threw it over the deer's head. This confused the animal and the two women escaped with broken scratches and badly torn clothing.

Chicago Gets Largest Tapez. Chicago.—A giant tapez sent to the Field museum from Brazil by Dr. Oliver C. Farrington, who is on a geobotanical expedition for the museum, was measured by Dr. H. W. Nichols, associate curator. He found the dimensions 9 inches by 10 by 17. It is believed to be the largest tapez in the world. "I judge that it weighs at least 100 pounds," said Doctor Nichols.

Trouble for Nothing. Some of the elaborate cruises that their perpetrate recreates themselves on traveling are not believed at all.

Efficiency. We do not wish "efficiency" with us as a vacation trip, but it is a fine thing to enable us to take the trip.

OTSELIC FARMER ARRESTED

George W. Lee and Hired Man Apprehended by State Troopers on Lee's Seventy-Fifth Birthday For Alleged Arson.

George W. Lee, owner of a large farm at Otselec, but himself a resident of Cuyler, near Delmar, was arrested on Tuesday after an investigation which for some time had been conducted by Sheriff Walworth. District Attorney Truesdell and State Troopers Young and Maynard of the Midway barracks. At the same time Edwin Carroll, an employee of Lee, was placed under arrest, both on warrants issued by Justice E. L. Brown of South Otselec. They were arraigned before Special County Judge Nelson P. Bonney and were charged with arson in the second degree, for alleged burning on January 12 of the house and barn on the Otselec property. They were admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000 each, and there will be a hearing on the charges on February 14 at 10 a. m. The arrest, it is stated, was made on the 75th birthday of Lee.

Lee has a home at Cuyler and is reported to be wealthy. Two young men returning from a dance at Otselec early in the morning of January 12, were the first persons to discover the blaze. They at once started for the scene and on their way met a black horse and rig containing two men. On arriving at the fire they discovered wagon tracks and, immediately suspecting the men in the rig as those responsible, they turned about and drove as rapidly as possible in the direction of where they had encountered the rig, but their auto became stuck in the snow and they were obliged to abandon the quest. By other means the rig was traced to Delmar, where residents were attracted by the racing of a horse which was wet with foam. An investigation was shortly afterwards begun, and as a result the arrests were made, another witness alleging a suspicious conversation between Lee and Carroll, overheard by him a few days before the fire.

It is stated that the barn contained about 20 tons of hay, but the house was empty, save for a single chair, and there was not even a pall on the premises which might have been brought into use by those who discovered the fire.

The farm had been vacant for about eight months. There was insurance of $5,000 on the buildings and $1,000 on contents.

Conferring With Architects. George E. Savage of Philadelphia, Pa., was in the city on Tuesday conferring with the plans committee of the first Methodist Episcopal church and yesterday the junior member of the firm of Bolton & Son of the same city was here on a similar errand. The last named firm designed the new church edifice in Buffalo and Niagara Falls which the plans committee recently visited. It is hoped that the committee will be able to offer something in the way of suggested plans at an early date. Meanwhile the finance committee will continue its activities.

RECREATION PROGRAM

A. E. Riedorff, Public Schools Addresser Director, Discussed Program Needs and Conditions. Present Needs in Address Before Rotary Club.

Declaring that an adequate all year program of recreation and physical instruction for the boys and girls of the city would largely eliminate street and pool room loafing and make for a higher type of future citizenship, Allen E. Riedorff, director of physical education in the public schools of the city, made a powerful plea for greater recreational facilities in his address before Oneonta Rotary club at its weekly luncheon yesterday. Mr. Riedorff outlined what is now being done along this line and told what in his opinion is still needed.

Mr. Riedorff described in detail the physical instruction and recreational work being done in the public schools. He stressed the point that an endeavor is made to have all students participate in games of some sort. Basketball is being played by a large number of high school students, either through work on the varsity squad or in inter-class games, as well as by students in the upper grades at the Academy street and Chestnut street buildings. The girls, as well as the boys, are given their regular hours in the gymnasium. Soccer is played in the fall by girls as well as boys.

In discussing the work being done along this line by the Y. M. C. A., the various churches and the Boy Scouts, the speaker stated that lack of facilities and leadership have precluded greater activity. He said that a new Y. M. C. A. containing a gymnasium and a swimming pool was a vital need and also expressed the idea that each church should contain a recreation room for boys and girls. Skating should be encouraged by the lighting at night of the pond in Nichols park, he said.

Mr. Riedorff said that an extensive summer recreation program is now being planned. This includes swimming, hiking, tennis, roller skating, apparatus work and games of all descriptions.

In speaking of the work planned for the high school in the near future Mr. Riedorff stated that there will be football and soccer in the fall, basketball in the winter, and baseball and track in the spring. Football has not been played locally in some years and it will take considerable time to develop a winning team, he said. Continued success is expected in basketball and good seasons are looked forward to in track and baseball. Baseball has slumped in the school for two or three years but prospects are good for a first class team this spring, he said.

Mr. Riedorff's address was much enjoyed by the Rotarians and gave them a splendid insight into what was needed in the way of recreation facilities in the city. At the conclusion of the talk, President David H. Mills pledged the efforts of the club toward putting across an adequate program of school athletics.

The high school basketball squad was present as guests of members of the club and the pleasure of the boys in being present was only equalled by the pleasure of the club in having them there. The boys added to the liveliness of the meeting by giving school yells and singing.

The meeting was an exceptionally enthusiastic one. A feature which attracted attention on all was the singing by the "Village Choir," famous by its efforts at the charter night of Cooperstown club, of verses dealing with the celebrated VanWick-VanDeusen derby episode. The verses, sung to the tune of "The Old Oaken Bucket," were written by Louis E. Capron.

Guests present in addition to the high school line, were Bert Low of Oneonta, Walter Rankin of Richfield Springs, R. F. Lee Jr. of Westfield, N. J., T. W. Lizard of New York city, Frank E. Burrows of Rochester and Rotarian U. S. Clark of Binghamton.

SUICIDE AT WARRENVILLE

Elmer Clapper, 42 Years, Life Long Farmer, Ends Life by Shooting Thursday morning—Funeral Saturday Afternoon.

Cobleskill, Jan. 31. — Elmer Clapper, farmer living with his wife and son on Warrenton hill near here, committed suicide about nine o'clock this (Thursday) morning by shooting himself in the head with a shotgun, the charge blowing part of his head to pieces, death resulting instantly.

Reason for the act could not be given by members of the family, although Mr. Clapper, who was 42 years of age and had been in poor health, recently had acted as though slightly demented at times.

Mr. Clapper resided on the place formerly owned by George Walker, who lived on the hill with his family on the farm. Mr. Clapper had arisen as usual this morning and after breakfast rested awhile. His son, William, had gone to a neighbors to see about some work. When Mr. Clapper arose he asked for a pencil and then went upstairs.

Locking himself in his room, Clapper wrote a note to one of his daughters and called good-bye to his wife. The shotgun with a string attached to the trigger was aimed directly at his head and before Mrs. Clapper could get upstairs, the trigger was pulled sending the heavy charge into the top part of his head.

Dr. C. F. Wharton, health officer of Richmondville, was summoned to take charge and permit the removal of the body to the undertaking room.

Mr. Clapper was born in the town of Oneonta October 26, 1892, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Clapper. He had been a farmer all his life and had been married for fifty years. In addition to his wife, who was Helen Neer, Mr. Clapper is survived by four children, Mrs. Earl Spaulding of Vinton, Mrs. Earl Spaulding of Howe Cave, Mrs. Nicholas King of Cobleskill and William at home, two brothers, Emory of East Worcester and Lester of Worcester, and three sisters, Mrs. Herman Panicher of Albany, Mrs. Frank Gage of Mohawk and Mrs. William Tator of Warrenton.

Funeral services will be held at one o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Fairland church with burial in the Fairland cemetery.
